and Counsellor at L in Chancery,

FREMONT COUNTY, 400 March 31st, 1851.

PREMONET HYDE:

DEAR SRI: — Vesterday I obtained a copy of the Fronter Guardina Extra, in which I found a letter from Tearmer, of this County, dissenting from the statements which I made at the Convention of the 14th inst, and he further states that he believes that there is no such understanding, and that the majority of the citizens will youth for what he says, and he further believes that the Mormon were excited into a nomination of one of their Church by such declarations. Actions will speak louder than words.

I said in my speech at Kaneaville that a majority of the citizens of this (Fremu) county believed if a Mormon Judge was 5 elected that there would be difficulty, for there were people that would not abide the statement of the citizens of this fifteness of the citizens of this difference was a first of the citizens o

I have understood was the petition certifying that whia I stated was not true, but I hear that he can get but few signatures, and the latest accounts asy he has abandoned the project.

Now Sir, I do this in all good feeling towards you and Mr. Farmer, but I do it in order to set myself right before you and the community. What I done I did from no other motive than to give you a true statement of the feelings of this community as I then believed them to be, and now I can produce any amount of testimony that all that I stated was true; my enemies them.

Give this to the Public if you please.

Yours truly,

BENJAMIN RECTOR

The Frontier Guardian.

POETRY.

For the Guardian.
A Paraphrase.
EZERIKL 37th CHAPT

BY ALFRED CORDON.

The hand of God it rested down

he bones lay scatter'd all around, Quite numberless and dry; 'hile gazing on the lonely scene, A voice came from the sky.

The skin it covered them; tte skin it covered them; tt still the breath of life they lack'd, To make them living men.

Again the Lord said prophecy,
And blid the winds come fort;
And breathe upon these lifects forms,
And raise them from the earth.
The Priesthood's power sgain I tried,
But mark what scenes trainpired;
Anighty army started forth.
Their souls with ardour fired.

Then they rejoiced, they knew their God, And own'd his mighty hand; His promises were verified, He placed them in their land.

Therefore ye nations ceese your strife, Old Israel shall be free; And worship God in their own land, Through all eternity.
